Tutoring-

Online tutoring and finals study groups are available for Calculus I, Calculus II, Vector Calculus, and differential equations, and Study-A-Thons are available for MATH 122A. Tau Beta Pi (Engineering Honor Society) also offers free tutoring for general engineering courses and prerequisites. For more information, go to <https://enr.arizona.edu/undergrad-services/tutoring-study>. Any study skill workshop opportunities will be posted under the same link.

Clubs & Student Organizations- Many of these student organizations offer skills workshops and subject-specific support. These include clubs based around leadership, design, build, and compete teams, honors societies, professional societies, and student interest clubs. Visit <https://enr.arizona.edu/undergrad/clubs-organizations> to learn more.

Students are also encouraged to seek support through their advisor. Go to <https://enr.arizona.edu/undergrad-services/advising> to find your advisor or schedule an appointment.
