Dear [REDACTED]:

The Dean of Students Office (DOS) has received an official complaint alleging that Zeta Beta Tau violated the Arizona Board of Regents Student Code of Conduct.

Reportedly on or about September 24, 2026, Zeta Beta Tau allegedly hosted an unruly gathering which resulted in a response by both the University of Arizona Police Department (UAPD) and the Tucson Police Department (TPD). The organization was cited with a TPD "Red Tag." Additionally, it was reported that the event resulted in significant disruption to the area, including traffic at a major intersection. This created an environment that endangered University of Arizona students and the local community.

Such behavior is in violation of the Arizona Board of Regents Student Code of Conduct, pertinent parts of which are stated below:

Code of Conduct/2. Endangering / Threat / Cause Harm - Endangering, threatening, or causing physical harm to any member of the university community or to oneself, causing reasonable apprehension of such harm or engaging in conduct or communications that a reasonable person would interpret as a serious expression of intent to harm.

Code of Conduct/4. Other Published Rules - Violation of, or attempt to violate, other rules that may be adopted by Board or by the university.

Code of Conduct/26. Violation of State or Federal Law - Commission of any offense prohibited by state or federal law or local ordinance.

Pursuant to the Arizona Board of Regents Policy 5-401, et.seq. and in accordance with the Arizona Board of Regents Student Code of Conduct, this letter is to inform you that effective immediately, Zeta Beta Tau is placed on Social Activities Suspension. This suspension has been imposed pending the outcome of this investigation because it has been determined that your organization presents a risk to members of the university and surrounding community.

Social Activities Suspension prohibits hosting, attending, participating, and/or sponsoring any social events, parties, mixers, formals, or philanthropic events until the final disposition of this case. A strict ban has been placed on hosting any type of gathering at the organization's property located at 811 North Euclid Avenue.

To discuss the allegation pending against the fraternity, please contact DOS by October 5, 2026, to schedule a meeting. At the meeting, a DOS representative will answer questions and explain the Student Code of Conduct Disciplinary process. It is expected that Zeta Beta Tau will fully cooperate with this investigation. Any acts impeding the disciplinary process are prohibited. To schedule a meeting, please contact Sandra Thiffault at [REDACTED].

A copy of the Student Code of Conduct and the Student Disciplinary Procedures can be found at the following websites:

Please be advised that retaliating against anyone involved in the investigation is against university policy. Should retaliation be alleged, it is a separate and distinct potential policy violation warranting another investigation. Additionally, Zeta Beta Tau is currently on University Probation, meaning that if this directive is violated, or should there be additional violations of the Code, Zeta Beta Tau may receive more restrictive sanctions, including but not limited to loss of recognition.

We appreciate your immediate response.

Sincerely,

Whitney Mohr
Associate Dean of Students, Student Rights & Responsibilities
