Dear [Redacted],

The Greek Standards Board has received a complaint against Theta Delta Chi for allegedly violating the Student Code of Conduct.

Policy Allegedly Violated:

Student Code of Conduct 2. Endangering, threatening, or causing physical harm to any member of the university community or to oneself, causing reasonable apprehension of such harm or engaging in conduct or communications that a reasonable person would interpret as a serious expression of intent to harm.

Nature of Complaint:

The Dean of Students Office received the following report:

“Members of the Fraternity Theta Delta Chi (TDX) approached and harassed me about wearing a shirt from the 2021 TDX family weekend that I had purchased at the university bookstore a few weeks prior. They continued to insult and harass me until one of the leaders of their frat joined them. He told me to take my shirt off and that if I didn’t take off my shirt by the time I left the gym “I have 10 guys waiting outside (the rec) to rip it off you.” Even after my refusal he continued to insult me. When I asked them to leave so I could continue my workout, he told me that my workout was over and that I had to leave the gym. After about 10(ish) minutes of this, I gave in and removed my shirt and gave it to them. They gave a few more insults and then left.”
