College of Fine Arts

Disclaimer: this does not necessarily contain every academic resource on campus. For additional resources and assistance, contact your academic advisor.
School of Art

Due to the size of this department, there are no major specific resources offered. However, you are encouraged to reach out to your professor or advisor so they can help your particular situation.

School of Dance

Dance Medicine Clinic- "Provides students timely and accurate evaluations of their injuries, advice on effective treatments for simple injuries, and referrals for more complex problems," according to their website. Visit https://dance.arizona.edu/students/medicine-clinic-and-training-room/ to learn more.
School of Dance

Dance Training Room- "Daily, on-site access to services in the dance athletic training room by Kristin Miller, a licensed athletic trainer specializing in dance-related care and injury prevention," according to their website. Visit https://dance.arizona.edu/students/medicine clinic-and-training-room/ for more information.

The Dance Collective- "A student organization where dance majors may serve as members to promote fellowship among students and faculty, represent student needs and wants concerning UA School of Dance facilities, management, events, and social affairs, and sponsor the annual Arizona Jazz Dance Showcase" according to their website. To learn more, visit https://dance.arizona.edu/students/the-dance collective/.
School of Theatre, Film & Television

Due to the size of this department, there are no major specific resources offered. However, you are encouraged to reach out to your professor or advisor so they can help your particular situation.

Fred Fox School of Music

Academic recovery workshops are available run by the College of Fine Arts, reach out to davidboulton@arizona.edu for more information.

GTAs or other graduate students offer formal or informal tutoring; contact davidboulton@arizona.edu for more information.