

Honors College

Disclaimer: this does not necessarily contain every academic resource on campus. For additional resources and assistance, contact your academic advisor

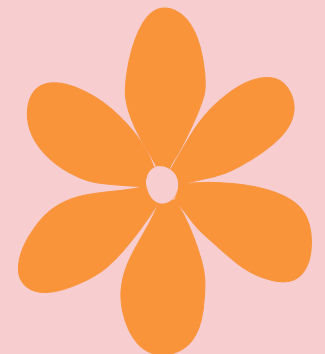

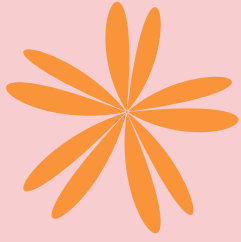

First Year Experience

First-Year Project- First-year students conduct a research project on a topic that interests them (not required to be their major) while being supervised by a faculty mentor. Students looking for assistance with choosing a topic or finding a faculty mentor should email chereemeeks@email.arizona.edu. Go to <https://honors.arizona.edu/academics/research/first-year-project> for more information.

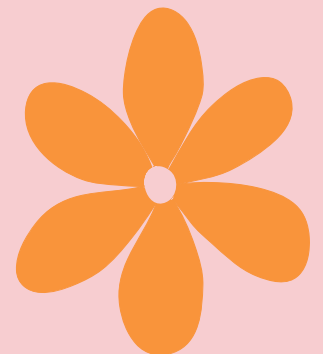

Honors First-Year Trip- A 6 unit summer study abroad program in Paris and Berlin. Students will earn Honors General Education credit. Explore new cities with your fellow Honors students and faculty in this structured program. Go to <https://honors.arizona.edu/student-experience/study-abroad/honors-first-year-trip> to learn more.

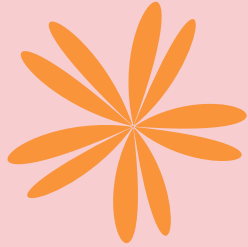

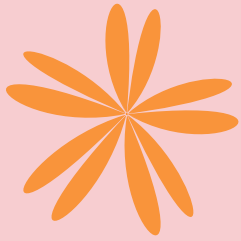

PATH Mentoring

PATH Mentoring- Mentors accepted to this program mentor several Freshmen and help ease their transition to college. Mentors also have the opportunity to network with Honors College faculty and staff, other PATH mentors, and alumni of PATH. This program also includes professional development opportunities and helping staff Honors College events. To apply, visit <https://honors.arizona.edu/student-experience/path-mentoring>.

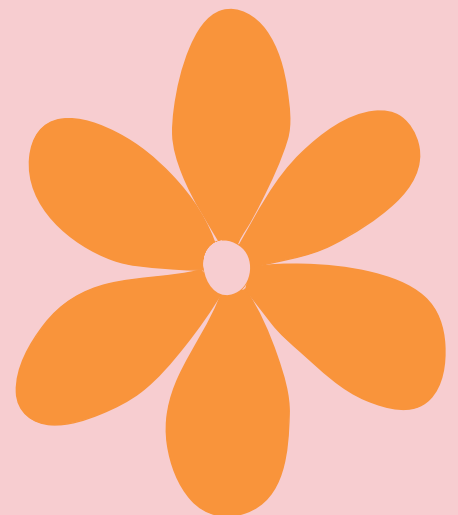

Clubs

Honors Student Council- The council consists of driven honors students who are enthusiastic about sharing their ideas to improve the Honors College. Go to <https://honors.arizona.edu/join-honors-student-council> to learn more.

Honors College Ambassadors- Ambassadors meet with prospective students and help promote the Honors College and the University of Arizona by showing them the great experiences and opportunities within the college and university.

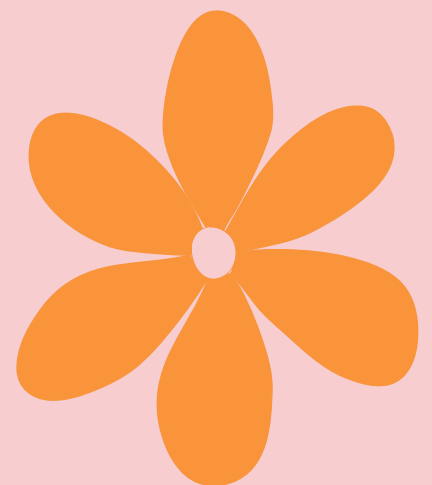

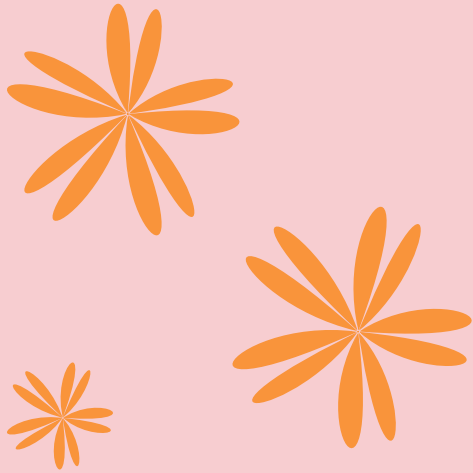

Clubs

Xtreme Discovery Teams- This volunteer-based organization works with local middle schools and high schools to promote higher education. Members work together to create exciting and engaging academic workshops based on what they are learning in their college classes.

Short Story & Tea- This is a short-story club that meets twice a month on Wednesdays at 3 pm in the Patricia MacCorquodale Academic Lounge to discuss a selected short story. No commitment, drop in when you have time to talk about the story and enjoy the drinks and snacks provided:

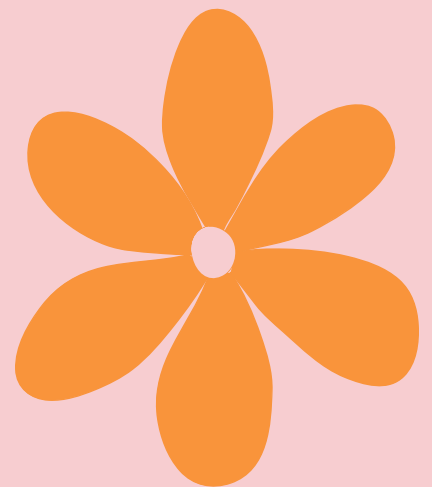

<https://honors.arizona.edu/short-storytea>.

Office of Nationally Competitive Scholarships

Assists students in competing annually for many nationally competitive scholarships. Serves all students (both honors and non-honors): <https://honors.arizona.edu/student-experience/office-nationally-competitive-scholarships>

UA Honors Medcat Early Assurance Program

An opportunity for Honors College students for early admission to the University of Arizona's College of Medicine-Tucson. This program consists of a 10 student cohort of UA Honors students who get a head start learning the UA COM's curriculum, networking, and other opportunities. Students apply in the Fall of their Junior Year. Once accepted, students will participate in a mentored, immersive research experience with UA COM faculty. Students will also attend 1-hour seminars weekly on a variety of topics during the summer program. Find more information and requirements at <https://honors.arizona.edu/medcat>.

